DINING

LEARN MORE

The heart of the culinary scene in Springfield is rooted in independent, locally owned establishments—from the city's first brewery pouring handcrafted beers to family-run taverns, barbecue joints, and longtime downtown staples. Chef-driven gastropubs, Mediterranean and Italian cuisine, and an upscale wine and whiskey bar with an internationally sourced list add a level of sophistication to your options. The scene is rounded out by welcoming gathering places—cozy coffee shops for mornings and lunches, taprooms and taverns for relaxed evenings, and restaurants that double as social hubs.
